REORGANIZATION OF ASSOCIATION AT GRAND VIEW

Officers Are Chosen at Big Meeting; Musical Program Thoroughly Enjoyed

Reorganization of the Grand View Improvement association took place last night at a large meeting held in a hall on the property of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Botsford, on Sixth street, between Grand View and Pacific avenues. The reorganization was effected so that residents of the Pacific avenue district, recently annexed to Glendale, might have the opportunity of becoming members and participating in the election of officers.

J. H. Randall, president of the Grand View organization, was unanimously chosen as head of the new association; G. A. Lucas was elected secretary and James Connor was named for treasurer. A committee was selected to draw up by-laws, arrange for a regular place of meeting and make other plans for the organization.

It is planned to hold the next meeting a month from last night and, it is probable, the gathering will take place in the hall on the Botsford property, which is admirably located for the purpose, the association officials point out.

City Officials Present

By special invitation, Mayor Spencer Robinson, Councilmen A. H. Lapham and S. A. Davis and Secretary James Rhoades and Assistant Secretary E. F. Saunders of the Chamber of Commerce were present and each made talks.

The mayor and councilmen offered to co-operate with the district in securing needed improvements, especially in effecting the sale of the water bonds. The Chamber of Commerce officials called attention to the membership drive now being conducted, the Merchants' Exposition and, of course, extended an invitation to the district to visit the big show. Also, they offered the aid of the chamber in furthering the improvement of the district.

Charles Marshall Has Visit From Old Friend Who May Locate Here

W. A. Smith, who for a quarter of a century has been the manager for the Phoenix Life Insurance company of Hartford, Connecticut, for Nebraska, Iowa and Kansas, with offices at Omaha, Nebraska, has now severed his connection with the company to seek a more congenial climate. Having just arrived from Omaha, he called upon his old time friend and business associate, Charles Marshall of 525 South Central avenue, who took the pleasure of driving him in and around Glendale. He was delighted with the scenery, the hills and valleys, and was favorably impressed with the activity in the business section and remarked that the business streets of this city compared favorably with cities of fifty thousand.

The building bustle attracted his attention. He said he had heard of Glendale as being a rapidly growing city, but the reality exceeded his expectations. Having known Mr. Smith for more than twenty years and feeling that such men are a valuable asset to a growing city Mr. Marshall hopes to induce his friend to locate in Glendale.

WOMAN IN AUTO CRASH

Accidents in Glendale seem to come in cycles. Not motorcycles, but automobiles, with a penchant for running gasoline filling stations. Olive W. Kelso, a woman residing at 39 North Meredith avenue, Pasadena, yesterday noon "tried to avoid a truck" going north on San Fernando road while she was crossing that thoroughfare at Los Feliz road. Instead of placing her foot on the brake it was evident Miss Kelso stepped on the accelerator and her car plunged into the Anderson gasoline station, tearing away part of the building and wrecking the machine. The woman was uninjured.

Mrs. William Ferguson was the driver in a similar accident at the Security Gas Station, Broadway and Louise, on Tuesday afternoon.

RICHARD MORGAN IS HURT

Richard Morgan, age 10, of 203 West Elk avenue, while riding north on Brand boulevard this morning on his bicycle ran into the left rear side of a truck being driven west on Broadway by J. L. Egasse of 301 West Hill avenue, Eagle Rock. He was not seriously injured.

NEW AMERICAN DIRIGIBLE, ON TRIAL TRIP, EXPLODES; FIFTY MEN LOSE LIVES, IS BELIEVED

Giant Air Machine Works Perfectly Until Near End Of Journey, Then Comes Tragedy; Two Known To Be Saved By Using Parachutes

LONDON, Aug. 24.—The new American dirigible ZR-2 was wrecked by an explosion near Hull today.

Only two men were known to have been saved. The two jumped from the blazing bag in parachutes and came down safely.

The machine was nearing the end of a trial flight which was to establish her fitness for a trans-Atlantic trip to America.

Going up late yesterday, the great machine worked perfectly, responding readily to the control levers and riding easily despite a high wind, which was encountered.

While over Hull at 5:45 p. m. today, shortly after she had signalled that she was going to make a test flight for speed, the huge gas bag exploded.

The dirigible broke in two and plunged into the River Humber, a wreck.

The crew aboard was believed to number fifty-two men, including twenty-one Americans.

Fifty men were believed to have perished in the disaster.

Waters of the Humber near where the bag tumbled to destruction were being searched for traces of the crew.

DRAMA SECTION OF TUESDAY CLUB IS PLANNING WORK

Mrs. R. E. Chase Is Hostess to Members; Name Committees to Present Plays

Mrs. R. E. Chase of 239 North Orange street entertained the members of the drama section of the Tuesday Afternoon club, of which she is curator, with an afternoon tea at her home yesterday. Plans were also discussed for the work to be taken up by the section during the coming year.

The list of studies outlined for the section include "The Bluebird," by Maeterlinck; "Quality Street," by Barrie; "Miss Lulu Bett," by Zona Gale; "The Importance of Being Earnest," by Oscar Wilde; "The Sins of David," by Stephen Phillips; "School for Scandal," by Sheridan; "Mary Stuart," by John Drinkwater; a review of all of the modern successes of 1920-1921; and a study of one of Racine's plays.

Members of the section discussed the matter of giving an evening of one-act plays, to be presented early in the season for the benefit of the new clubhouse fund. Reading of one of these plays was taken up yesterday afternoon. "Glory of the Morning," by William Ellery Leonard.

Committees were appointed to work on arrangements for the evening of one-act plays, as follows: Publicity, Mrs. Frank Ayars; program, Mrs. Albert Pearce; advertising, Mrs. W. L. Andrews; music, Mrs. C. A. Parker; tickets, Mrs. A. P. Findlay; books, Mrs. J. R. Bentley; props, Mrs. Max Green; make-up, Mrs. Barker; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. L. G. Sherman.

Arrangements were also made for the Christmas program for the Tuesday Afternoon club, which will be given by the drama section. The play "Dolls," by Louise Armstrong, will be presented. The members of the drama section decided to buy a new velvet curtain to be used as stage setting at the Masonic temple.

Those in Attendance
After the discussion of club affairs the hostess served refreshments of sandwiches, iced tea and cake. The members of the section present included Mrs. J. R. Bentley, Mrs. A. E. Bode, Mrs. Collin Cable, Mrs. C. H. Temple, Mrs. Albert Pearce, Mrs. J. W. Feinstein, Mrs. Alma Gibbs, Mrs. L. G. Sherman, Mrs. Max Green, Mrs. Roy L. Kent, Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker, Mrs. William F. Nash, Mrs. A. P. Findlay.

Mrs. W. H. Verity, Mrs. C. A. Parker, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Meadows, Mrs. Jesse Joseph, Mrs. Bert Cline and the hostess, Mrs. R. E. Chase.

LEAVE FOR OMAHA, NEB.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Keller and daughter, Lois, of Omaha, Neb., who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. George N. Armstrong of 457 Patterson avenue left for their home Tuesday morning on the Southern Pacific. They plan to visit San Francisco before going on to their home. Mr. Keller was in poor health and came west to recuperate. He left greatly improved, having gained in weight and other ways. Mr. Keller is vice president and secretary of the Alfred Bloom company of Omaha, Neb.

The machine was carrying fifty-two men, some Britishers, under whose direction it had been built, others the Americans who were being trained in her management for the trip to the United States.

There had been vague rumors that the airship was not behaving in an altogether satisfactory manner and that there were some defects in her fabric. These reports were denied.

The trial trip on which the explosion occurred was begun after the reports had been circulated.

It was said that some of the metal framework was weakened and that she "humped" in the middle. It was said also that some reinforcements had to be made because of that defect.

The ZR-2 ascended late yesterday for an extensive cruise over the North Sea and England.

The ZR-2 performed beautifully (Continued on Page 3)

AUTO WORK WILL BE NEW FEATURE AT HIGH SCHOOL

Practical Course Offered to Pupils; Corrective Class Gymnastics Planned

Glendale Union high school this year will offer an automotive course which will combine practice with theory, according to Bert Rolfe, the instructor who comes here from Lincoln high school in Los Angeles.

Rooms in the mechanical arts building are being remodelled to accommodate a complete garage and machine shop for motor cars and the boys will be able to practice what they learn on their own cars under Mr. Rolfe's direction.

The instructor is intensely practical, having been in the business for many years, first hiring out as an apprentice in a motor repair shop in England. Coming to this country he followed his trade with the Southern California Edison company and the Imperial Irrigation district, both of which maintain a large number of cars. He was outside foreman for the former concern and superintendent of the latter's machine shop.

Corrective Gymnastics
Another course which should attract a deal of interest is corrective gymnastics which will be offered to both boys and girls who of necessity should take such exercises. Traveling rings, flying rings, climbing ropes, horizontal ladders and bars and massage plinths are being installed in the gymnasiums, according to Normal C. Hayhurst, director of physical education. The athletic field also is being improved and with an additional coach, great promise of physical prowess at Glendale high can be foreseen.

Morgan Smith, who has been actively engaged in getting the mechanical arts shop ready for the coming school year, goes with his family next week to Anaheim landing where they will enjoy a few days' vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Hayhurst and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. King will spend a week on the Sespe fishing before school starts.

George Lockwood, another member of the faculty, with his wife is at Oak Glen. Principal and Mrs. George U. Moyle are motoring in the northern part of the state while A. L. Ferguson, vice principal, and Irving H. Oliver, business manager, are busy with office details.

COLOR SCHEME FOR BIG EXPOSITION IS ATTRACTIVE

Flags and Lights Will Add to Beauty of Displays by Local Merchants

Glistening white will be the predominating color of the booths in the Greater Glendale Merchants' Exposition opening here Saturday night. Today the framework of the various exhibitors' spaces was in place and the painters are busy giving the interior of the "big top" on the high school athletic field a coat of alabaster.

Sixty big flags and hundreds of lights also tend to the riot of color which will be seen at the show during the coming week. William Nance, chief electrician for the Pacific Coast Exposition company, and his crew of wire workers arrive Thursday to add the illuminative features.

High-powered nitrogen bulbs will make the tent at night as light as day and scores of smaller lights will line the runway on which the mannikins will sport the latest raiment in fall fashions' array. What is known as a "hot wire" will be available to all of the exhibitors to operate motors, etc.

Many Visitors Expected

A visit to the exposition grounds will prove to the most skeptical that this will be the greatest show ever staged here. In addition to hundreds of posters, street car and automobile banners, window cards and other advertising, personal invitations have been extended to all Chambers of Commerce of southern and central California to have representatives in attendance, according to Robert Cavenagh.

H. Elmo LaBree, director general, personally is overseeing the work at the tent while Cassie Mar-

HARRIETTE COOK IS HOSTESS BEHALF BRIDE-ELECT

Kitchen Shower Is Given for Miss Eileen Sullivan at B. F. Cook Home

Miss Harriette Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cook of 615 North Brand boulevard, was hostess last night at a very jolly party and kitchen shower given at her home in honor of Miss Eileen Sullivan, who is soon to become the bride of Francis Gordon of Hollywood.

One of the diversions of the evening which provided a great deal of merriment was when the hostess passed around pieces of paraffine to each guest, telling them to masticate the same until it was plastic enough to mold miniature animals. Miss Manola Budd was awarded first prize, a dainty hand-painted dish, and Miss Dorothy Hunt was awarded consolation prize, a tiny frying pan.

A very large wooden box was carried into the room and placed before Miss Sullivan, with the message that the box had been left at the door for her. Upon uncovering it, the guest of honor found the box to contain many varied kitchen utensils, all of which will find a most useful place in the home of the young couple when they go to housekeeping.

Program Is Enjoyed

Miss Marguerite Hauber very charmingly entertained the guests with several piano numbers, including Paderewski's "Minuet in G Major." This was followed by a very pleasing vocal solo by Miss Dorothy Hunt, accompanied on the piano by Miss Hauber.

The guests were next marched to a table, which had been decorated

BEATRICE ROBINSON AND A. S. OWEN IN ELOPEMENT

Popular Young Couple, Away on Vacations, Are Married in North, Is Report

Special dispatch to The Evening News received this morning states that Arthur S. Owen and Beatrice Robinson, both well known among Glendale's younger social set, were licensed to marry in San Francisco yesterday. The news comes as a complete surprise to the parents of the elopers, as well as to their local friends and acquaintances.

When told of her daughter's elopement, Mrs. A. S. Robinson, who lives at 537 East Lomita avenue, was greatly surprised. She said that her daughter, who is known to her many friends as "Babe," had left Glendale on Sunday, August 14, with her lifelong chum, Miss Edna Myer of Los Angeles, for a week's vacation at Catalina. When she did not return home last Sunday, as had been planned, Mrs. Robinson thought that the girls had decided to extend their outing another week.

Details Not Known

No particulars regarding the elopement could be obtained through the friends of either of the contracting parties, the contention among their more intimate associates being that no announcement would be made until the young couple's return to Glendale.

H. R. Owen of the Owen & Son Grocery company, who is the father of the reported bride-groom, stated that his son had left Glendale Sunday morning on a week's vacation and that no mention was made as to where he was going.

Mr. Owen was as surprised as was Mrs. Robinson when told of what had taken place, his only remark being: "Well, what do you know about that?"

Miss Robinson has lived in this city for the past four years, during which time she has become one of Glendale's most popular girls.

Engagement Suspected

Since graduating from the Los Angeles Polytechnic high school in June of last year, she has spent all of her time with her mother at her home on Lomita avenue. She has known Mr. Owen almost two years, and it was generally understood by the couple's friends that they were engaged to be married, although no one thought that the betrothal would take place for several months.

Mr. Owen came to Glendale two years ago from Longmont, Colorado, and attended the local high school for one term before he associated himself with his father in the grocery business. His home has been with his father in the Elks' clubhouse on Colorado boulevard.

Letter With Photo as Address Reaches Right Man From This City

Did you ever forget a person's name only to discover later that you wanted to write him a letter?

If so, just put his or her photograph on the front of the envelope, with the name of the city, in case you are fortunate enough to have the picture. That such a method can be used with success is shown by a letter received recently by John A. Stockman, manager of the Pacific Telegraph & Telephone company at Riverside.

The letter was mailed to Mr. Stockman by Manager Fred Deal, manager of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, from Glendale, on August 4 and was received August 5, which indicates that the novel method of addressing the epistle did not affect the speed at which it traveled. A photograph about two inches square enabled the Riverside postal authorities to deliver the letter to its owner.

CALLED BACK BY DEATH

Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Camerer of 311 West Garfield avenue motored down to San Diego Friday expecting to spend a week or ten days with their son, Lieutenant Commander C. B. Camerer, and his wife and daughter. They were called back, however, by a telegram they received Sunday night telling of the death of their uncle, Harrison W. Augustus of Glendale, and made the trip home Monday morning.

Verne Wilson of Glendale accompanied them and will remain at Hanford until time for school to open at the University of Southern California, where he plans to register for the winter terms.

AMERICAN DIRIGIBLE EXPLODES, ONLY TWO OF BIG CREW ARE SAVED

Death List May Total 50; Secretary of Navy Denby Learns of Greatest Aviation Accident in History

today so far as could be ascertained from the ground. A few messages sent out from the huge cabin indicated that the crew were satisfied.

Spectators who had watched the machine gliding through the air were horrified to see the big air suddenly crumple while a cloud of smoke ballooned above the shattered silk fabric.

General Maitland, believed to have been on board, was England's foremost air officer. He left his regiment, the First Essex, in 1909 to start the British flying squadron, composed of five Maurice Farman airplanes.

In 1910 he flew on a balloon trip in company with another officer and was blown out of his course, landing in Russia.

During the war Maitland led the first bombing raid across the German lines, later being recalled to the war office, when he took over the duties of superintendent of Britain's naval air service.

He was 40 years of age. His friends called him "Gee-Gee," after the slow-flying types which he used in his pioneer days.

The ZR-2, which was built by British workmen for the United States navy, was reputed to be the last word in dirigible construction.

She was the largest machine of the sort attempted. The workmen had taken particular pains in her design and in the building of it.
Every bit of her mechanism was gone over carefully and many minute adjustments made.

Despite the tremendous size of the bag, she was known to be capable of great speed.

Both British and American officers were confident she would be able to make the trans-Atlantic trip in two days.

Secretary of Navy Told

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 24.— Secretary of the Navy Denby was deeply shocked when he read the United Press dispatch on the wreck of the ZR-2, the giant American dirigible.

"This is the first word we have had on it," he said. "I hardly know what to say."

Denby said it was impossible for him to say how many Americans, if any, were on board the great ship when it exploded over Hull.

"Undoubtedly there were a few Americans on board," he said.

"While I haven't had any word from London, it was my impression that some of our men were to take part in the trial flight to acquaint themselves with the ship. It will be some time before we can establish identity of these Americans on board."

FUN FILMS RULING PALACE GRAND'S DOUBLE BILL

Free Matinee Tomorrow for All Kiddies Under 12; First Organ Concert Then

Billie Burke, dainty Paramount star, has triumphed again. In her latest picture, "The Education of Elizabeth," which was presented at the Palace Grand yesterday, she is seen as a chorus girl, irresistibly fascinating, quaint, chic, rough and ready and charming throughout.

There are numerous laughable sayings of the chorus girl and despite her uncouthness, one loves her.
When her education is in progress, there are scenes of exceptional interest and appeal and one leaves the theatre with the feeling that he has made the acquaintance of a decidedly worth while creature.

"Home Talent," a Mack Sennett five reeler, also is keeping the crowds hilarious.

Beginning tomorrow the new Hope-Jones Wurlitzer master unit organ will be playing and introducing this innovation will be a photoplay bill of unusual merit. Charles Ray in "Scrap Iron" is the feature which should be enough to pack the house. Then "Miracles of the Junc-les" in its first episode is another great film. "When the Whale Was Jonah" and a Paramount magazine complete the bill. Children under 12 are invited free to tomorrow's matinee by Manager N. J. Fleming.

MR. AND MRS. PLUME BACK

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Plume of 322 Burchett street returned to Glendale Monday night of this week from a two weeks' outing and camping trip through the northern and eastern parts of the state. They spent several days at Lakes Tahoe and Huntington, and also various other well known California resorts.

In speaking of the trip Mr. Plume stated that both county and state authorities are conducting a vigorous and extensive campaign against all speeders and other traffic violators. Especially strict are the motor "cops" in the region of the Ridge route, where the speed limit is fifteen miles per hour for a stretch of over thirty miles. Mr. Plume says that it is necessary that all motorists who are planning to travel over the famous highway should carry all of their driving credentials with them, as a jail sentence is often the penalty for seemingly slight infringements of the law.

R. H. BUNGAY BUYS HOME

R. H. Bungay, who has been living in the Rambeau home at 122 West Lomita avenue for the past six months, has recently purchased the property from Mrs. Lillian Rambeau and has made a number of alterations and improvements both in the house and the yard. The reported price of the property was given at $8,000 cash.

The name of Mr. Bungay will be recognized by local sport lovers as the Pacific coast champion handicap trap shooter, he having been associated with Southern California gun clubs for the past several years. At present he is engaged in business in Ocean Park, which was formerly his home town, where he has an interest in the Ocean Park Bath House.

"The California Southland," a in its first issue, according to a letter received by Secretary James M.

Rhoades of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce from William Dunkerley, secretary of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce who will edit the paper.
The accomplishments of this city will be set forth for the perusal of all Southern California boosters, according to Mr. Rhoades, and the simple statement of fact regarding the local organization should open their eyes regarding the potential-ties of Glendale.

Another publication which will give this city much publicity is the Glendale Business Directory now being compiled by The Evening News.
Besides descriptive matter it will have the representative merchants and professional men under their proper classification. Hundreds of copies will be available to newcomers while the book will serve as a ready reference for all business houses and homes.

'DEAR KATIE' GETS
SHARP ANSWER
TO LETTERStrivin' Reporter Could 'a Been Hit by Lightning' and Felt No Worse

GLENDALE, Aug. 24, 1921.

Dear Katie: When I got your letter today I couldn't be no more surprised if I had been hit by light-nin' on a moonlight night.

Not howsoever that you wrote anything worth gettin' excited about, but it was the mere facts as how you wrote at all.

For quite a while a lot of people has been sayin' to me as how is Katie comin' to Glendale and all I could say was yes and no. And now as I think about it, I only have got two letters from you since Christmas and one of them was a postal card. How did I know what had become of you if anything? Since I got on this here job as a strivin' reporter I have sent you 62 letters and 37 picture cards and 12c in stamps and here at last I hear from you.

And in your letter today you want me to give you some true facts as to which is the best town in Southern California. For the love of Mike, Katie, ain't you never got none of my letters or what's the matter?

It seems as how all the articles which I have wrote about this here town has been a waste of my time.

Town Draws Like Flax Seed
Well once more Katie, I will say as how Glendale is not only the finest, but the fastest growing town in America.

This town continues to draw like a flax seed poultice and new arrivals is comin' at the rate of 700 a month, includin' Sundays, not countin' 4,000 visitors that's comin' this winter, half of which will never go away again. People are beginnin' to realize as how the beauties of Glendale ain't all on the end of lemon crates and they're comin' here and huntin' for homes in these happy huntin' grounds and then all they have to do is to set down and pick the dollar bills off the bushes in the back yard. The eyes of the world is on this here town and it's gettin' to be as well known as ham and eggs.

In ten years from now Glendale will be bigger than Chicago and parts of Key West, providin' of course that we decide to annex Los Angeles as a suburb. And if all them facts ain't the truth, what is it?

Katie Doesn't Want Much

The second line of your letter, Katie, says as how you are ready to come to Glendale as soon as I say the word. You say you are hopin' we can get married as soon as you get here and that we can have a nice little home and a Ford and a Baby Grand and some chickens and a couple orange groves and everything.

Say, Katie, does that last item cover a steam yacht and a couple a bull dogs?

Well, all I got to say is, that if that is what you got in your mind's eye, don't pack your trunk just yet,
'cause right now on this here job as a strivin' reporter I couldn't keep you in hair nets.

You say you have bought a new trunk and a lot of new clothes among which you got a jabot for $1.

Well, what in Sam Hill is a jabot?
For land's sake, take it back and change it for a fryin' pan or somethin'.

These Are Harsh Words

Here I am shavin' my own neck to cut down expenses and you buyin'
—say, Katie, ain't you had no bringin' up? As far as comin' to Glendale is concerned you are as welcome as a $3.00 raise, but you got a lot to learn, Katie, before you do come, if ever.

In the first place you better sell that $150.00 fur coat which you bought yourself for Christmas and which you paid $11.50 for, cause out here in Glendale it would be about as necessary as over shoes for a Arab. In the second place you got to learn somethin' about the traffic rules on Brand and Broadway. First, you better get out in a field somewhere and then have your paw try to run over you with his new Ford and see if you can get out of the way.

If you can dodge him nine times out of ten you will be eligible to go shoppin' alone most anywhere, but if you miss and get hit on the tenth count, let me know how you come out as soon as you're able to set up again.

When you come to do real packin' you better pack that 100-piece set of china-ware in a barrel with a sofa pillow between each piece, cause if you don't, there will probably be a thousand pieces instead of only a hundred by the time it gets here.

Well, Katie, with all your faults,
I love thee still—the stiller the better, and after thinkin' the matter over, I guess as how you better stay there in Wisconsin for another year, anyhow.

Yours, if you wait long enough,
E. C. HALE.

Mrs. Teenie Bessett's
Birthday Is Observed

Mrs. Teenie Bessett, who recently completed a new home at 370 West Wilson avenue, was pleasantly surprised Saturday afternoon by a number of her neighbors and friends from Minneapolis, her former home, who are now residing in California. This was in the nature of a house-warming party and also in celebration of Mrs. Bessett's birthday anniversary.
The guests took a number of photographs of the house and of each other. During the afternoon refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Those present included Mrs.
Bessett, Mrs. Georgiana Bell, Miss Mary Stevens, Mrs. Dillinger, Mrs.
Allright, Mrs. E. Hamil, Mrs. Charlotte Brackett and Mrs. Blake Franklin of Glendale and Mr. and Mrs.
Hopkins, son-in-law and daughter of Mrs. Bessett, of Los Angeles.

ENTERTAINMENT ENJOYED

The members of Mary Jane Gillette Tent No. 18 and N. P. Banks Camp No. 22 participated in a most enjoyable entertainment last night at the Odd Fellows' hall on Broadway.
Mrs. Pearl Moore sang several delightful solos, accompanied by Mrs.
Winona Crawford on the piano. Arthur J. Van Wie gave an excellent reading. This was followed by vocal solos by Mrs. Almina Bullock, accompanied by Mrs. Crawford at the piano, and readings by Mrs. Pearl Moore.

During the refreshments, which were served at a long table in the banquet hall by Mrs. Susie Peck and Mrs. Queen Danner, arrangements were made for a picnic to be held Tuesday, August 30, at Brookside park during the afternoon and evening. Members of the Tent and Camp and their families are expected to attend and all eligible daughters and sons of veterans are cordially invited to join in this basket picnic. Arrangements are in charge of Commander Robert Danner.

BACK FROM NEW YORK TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Peterson and son, George, of 1226 South Maryland avenue returned Monday from a two-months' trip to New York and eastern points. While in the east they visited Mr. Peterson's parents in New York City and Mrs.
Peterson's parents and relatives in Elizabeth, N. J. Some of the points visited by them were Niagara Falls, Buffalo, Washington, D. C., and Baltimore. In Washington they paid a visit to Mr. Vernon, where they saw Washington's old home, and the White House and other officials' quarters in the capitol. They also stopped at Ft. Wayne, Indiana, Chicago and San Francisco. Although having had a very delightful trip they were glad to return to Glendale.

LOCAL POLICE NOTES

Glendale glides peacefully along in police circles these summer days.
In the last twenty-four hours outside of one motor car wreck the following interesting work has kept the department busy:

Mrs. Lyle Hess of 333 Myrtle street reports prowlers around her residence at night.

Residents of East Cypress street object to boys making a playground out of the street.

And a stray horse was reported found at Vine street and San Fernando road this morning.

Twenty-four traffic cases will be heard by Police Judge F. H. Lowe tomorrow morning.

I can tell the "Triple-Sized" wallboard by the name "Cornell" on the edge

BECAUSE I've constructed walls, ceilings and partitions with about every brand of wallboard on the market—and checked the results three or four years later—I've now adopted the rule of picking out Cornell-Wood-Board for every job. I find that Cornell doesn't warp or buckle because it is "Triple-Sized."

Every man and woman I've worked for admires Cornell's handsome "Oatmeal" finish.

My painter friends say that Cornell's "Mill-Primed" surface takes a perfect spread of paint or calcimine without priming. So they always figure to paint a Cornell job for less.

Cornell
A Wood-Board

For repairing and remodeling, as well as new construction, Cornell is the ideal board. You can tell the genuine by the name on the edge.

Cornell comes in neat dustproof packages of 10 panels each, carefully protected by strong Cornell-made "Jute", eight lengths from 6 to 16 feet; two widths, "Cornell 32" for small rooms, "Cornell 48" for large rooms.

Membership Campaign Going Ahead Nicely, Is Report;
to Invade Van Nuys

The meeting of Glendale Lodge 331, Knights of Pythias, this week held at the Castle hall, Brand and Park, was the best attended and most interesting session the lodge has had for a long time. Visitors from near and far are always present and a goodly number were present this week, several of whom assisted the local officers' team to exemplify the Knight Rank. The work of Messrs. Kennedy, Spence and Palmer was unusually noted for its excellence. It was stated much pep is being demonstrated in the membership drive and the prospects never were brighter than at the present time. However, Chancellor Commander Emil E. Fram announced that the special committee appointed to inaugurate a drive for 300 members had selected Cal S. Nicholson and Ed S. Melzer as captains of two teams to expedite this drive. The members of the rival teams are now being selected and every eligible man in Glendale will now have the opportunity to join the order.

Visit Van Nuys Lodge

Thursday night a delegation of the faithful boarded autos and spent a pleasant evening with the members of the Van Nuys lodge.

Next meeting will be another record breaker, it is predicted. No real Pythian will miss it. The Page Rank will be conferred in a special manner never before attempted by the lodge. Plans are all complete for the big stag to be held early next month.

A similar affair is being staged at Van Nuys lodge, Knights of Pythias, on Thursday of this week, to which all Glendale Knights are requested to be present, and would ask all who desire to go and have no conveyance of their own to be at the Castle hall, Brand boulevard and Park avenue, at 7 p. m., where machines will be waiting.

PASS 'TENDERFOOT' TEST

The regular meeting of Troop One, Girl Scouts, took place at their headquarters at the Intermediate school Tuesday afternoon, with Dorothy Houston acting as chairman. There was an unusually large attendance. The following girls passed the tenderfoot test: Caroline Ayers, Berntha Brown, Katherine Bender, Lucile Beach, Frederica Browne, Alice Carpenter, Beryl Goodale, Tamson Johnson and Frances Betz. A number of other girls expect to pass the tenderfoot test at the meeting next Tuesday.

All of the new girls who have passed the test will be admitted to the Troop at a formal ceremony, which is to be held on Friday afternoon, September 2. During the afternoon it was decided that the Troop will go on a three-day hiking trip, starting Tuesday, September 6. The Troop had as their special guest at the meeting Miss Nell Leggett, who is planning to organize Troop Two in a few weeks.

CARS CRASH, NOBODY HURT

In a motorcar collision in front of the Glendale Theatre shortly before noon today, two Fords lost a wheel each. William Slayton, chauffeur for A. Wistrand, manager of the Medical Service Corporation, Pantages building, Los Angeles, backed his machine into the street while Alex McIntyre, of 235 South Everett street, was proceeding north in his car. The latter lost a right front wheel and the former a left rear wheel.

INSPECTING STREET PLANS

City Manager William H. Reeves, Councilman S. A. Davis and City Engineer E. L. Hill spent the morning inspecting various street improvements now under way or contemplated in the near future. Chamber of Commerce Names Committee to Meet With Southern Interests

With the purpose of getting the Chamber of Commerce and the business men of the southern section of the city together, a committee was named yesterday at the board of directors' meeting to confer with representatives there.

All three members of the directorate are vitally interested in the growth and development of southern Glendale, they being Peter L. Ferry, a contractor residing on Acacia avenue; Daniel Campbell, president of the Glendale National bank, which is located at Brand boulevard and Cypress street, and George L. Bentley of the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company with offices, warehouses and yards at Los Feliz road and the Southern Pacific tracks.

Additional Train Service

J. G. Huntley and D. L. Gregg were appointed to a committee headed by Peter Ferry which will take up the matter of additional Southern Pacific train service for Glendale. That is, it is the request of Mr. Ferry that all possible passenger trains stop here.

Cards indicating that business houses are members of the Chamber of Commerce are now being distributed, according to Secretary Rhodes.

Heart Throbs—Soul Interest

"Over the Hill" is a picture that will live as long as the homely virtues continue to exist. It will live as long as the love of a mother for her bairns. Dedicated to all the mothers and fathers in the world, it will do its share toward making the world a better place in which to live.—William Fox.

Law's wrath.

The Court Room scene in which the Black Sheep is branded a Felon.

The awful moment when Ma Benton realizes she must face the world alone.

When Charles' wife turns his old Mother out of doors.

When Isaac, the sanctimonious son, orders his Mother to the Poor-House.

The return of the Black Sheep, who has achieved success, and his wrath over his Mother's humiliation.

The battle in which he soundly thrashes Isaac.

Mother's return to the dear old homestead.

OPPOSES GRANTING RIGHTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24.—Attacking what he termed the "ruthless" policy of certain Los Angeles interests, E. D. Griddle, general agent of the Southern Sierra Power company, in an address before the San Francisco Electrical Development league here, declared that scores of smaller communities of the state would be deprived of necessary supplies through the granting of power rights to the southern metropolis. "There is not a city in the southern part of the state that will not suffer with that vast city swallowing up the water rights and power sites," he said. Griddle declared that if the higher courts uphold the recent acquisition by Los Angeles of power sites claimed by his company that there was nothing to prevent the city from squeezing out other concerns in the same manner.
